

MOBILIZING HARP-F KNOWLEDGE PLATFORM TO ADVANCE OUR PARTNERS'S RECOMMENDATIONS

THE HARP-F KNOWLEDGE PLATFORM: Building a Legacy and Advancing Localisation

Technical knowledge on what works in a protracted crisis

- Rapid, impartial, multi-partner response plan
- Real-time (formal and informal) reporting, communication and dialogue with partners
- Grant-making systems, procedures and best-practice

An information network built on:

55 partners

76 grants

£74.7 million

Delivering in remote and hard-to-reach places, building our understanding of those contexts, informing adaptive programming

Research, Evaluations and Data

- Linked to our logical framework and results/reporting framework
- Disaggregate by location, time, sector, partner
- Easy visualizations, such as maps
- Primary data from evaluations and research

Impact data from up to 3 years delivery, visualized in 5 dashboards providing an overview of 76 grants over 3 years

Research underway across all areas supported by HARP-F

Training platform

- Web knowledge repository: www.harpfacility.com
- On-demand learning platform
- Webinars, blogs, explainers and animations
- Research and evaluations, including the Remote partnership evaluation published last week

Web knowledge repository- www.harpfacility.com containing all dimensions of knowledge and learning

55 Training courses provided to 154 mostly national organisations

4 days emergency training materials prepared for online platform

Research underway across all areas supported by HARP-F

Information, Communication and Evidence

- Advocacy materials
- CASS
- Case studies
- Research and Data that provide evidence
- Dedicated resources for WaSH, nutrition, remote partnerships, localization, with others to follow

A baseline of information for our network to build from

Pushing for greater outreach as HARP-F closes, to bring our network to a wider audience

HARP-F was designed as a platform for locally-led humanitarian response

The platform needs to be maintained and improved

What we have presented today are the components of this platform

It demonstrates how money can go directly to national organisations in a safe, ethical and responsible way

WHO WILL TAKE THESE INNOVATIONS AND ASSUME LEADERSHIP?